The Widow Sued Htm For $20,000 Damages and the Jury Brought in Verdict Early Today.

NEW TRIAL TO BE ASKED FOR.

The jury in the case of Mrs. M. E. Head against Cheatham Hodga for $20,000 damages for alleged responsibility for the death of her husband, Pink Head, this morning brought in of the largest verdicts in the histor of McCracken county.

The case consumed two days of court last week, and was given to the jury this morning at 8:30 o'clock. The jury setired and after being out one hour and a half returned into court the verdict for $15,000. The widow asked $20,000 damages.

The case developed some startling testimony. There were about 30 witresses here for the defense and Hodge employed to defend him seven attorneys. The plaintiff had three The petition alleged that Hodge shot was a sponsible for the shooting of Head, who was killed on the night of September 28th, 1903, while he stood on his back porch. Mrs. Head testified that she saw a man who resembled Hodge escaping after the shooting and introduced two witnesses who stated that Hodge had told them that "he had put Head away," and "if they did not keep their faces closed about it, he would treat them

Hodge tried to prove an alabi and and about 30 witnesses on his side. The facts of the killing briefly stated are as follows:

Some one in the vicinity of Clinon where Hodge and Head had adjoining farms had been burning barns and committing vandalism of the worst sort. Hodge's barn burned and Head was suspected by Hodge, and the evidence showed that Hodge and his brother Bob went out one night to lay in wait for the incendi-

They did not watch together, but apart, and when Bob Hodge came towards the other he was mistaken for the incendiary and was shot and killed. That was one version. The other was that Hodge and his brother went to kill. Head and carried a chicken to attract him out of the house thinking that he would believe some one was after his chickens and come out. The chicken got away and Robert Hodge, according to that version, went in pursuit and in circulating about was mistaken by his brother for Head and killed. Later Hoad himself was killed. Hodge moved to Paducah a short time ago.

The suit was ably fought on both sides, and it was said by many attorneys Saturday after the evidence was omplote that they never saw a closer cast, there being about as much eviience one way as another.

A new trial will be asked, and an appeal taken in event it is refused. The attorneys in the case are:

BATTLE OF BALLOTS COMES OFF TOMORROW

The Republicans Have Every Assurance of Success in City and County'

The regular election takes place tomorrow, and it is likely that more interest will be manifested at the polls than many expect.

The city of Paducah is to elect a police judge for four years, and five aldermen, eight councilmen, and seven school trustees for two years. The county is to elect a judge, clerk of the county and circuit courts, sheriff, county attorney, jailer, assessor, surveyor, county school superintendent, representative and senator. A vote is to be taken on whether or not to permit hogs to run at large in the county outside of the city, or in the city, too, for that matter, although there is already in force a hog ordinance.

The county and city, along with all others in the state, are to vote on the constitutional amendment, which amendment is desired by the Democratic politicians to prevent Democrats and others from voting as they please in the future, and force those Democrats who now vote independently, to come back with the gang, or lose caste.

McCracken county has usually been Democratic and Paducah has frequently been Republican, but conditions this year are different from those of any other, and big surprises may be in store for the Democrats.

There is Democratic disaffection in both city and county, but to what extent it will manifest itself tomorrow, remains to be seen. The Republicans expect to elect county and city tickets. They have put up good men for all the offices, and have assurance from many Democrats that the Republican tickets will receive the support of hundreds of Democrats, who have perceived the way things are drifting in city and county affairs, Republicans should not be deceived or discouraged by the blatant boasts of the Democratic politicians and their henchmen, but should go to the polls early, cast their vote for the Republican tickets and against the constitutional amendment, and they will then know that they have done their duty. Go early and vote early.

A New Preparation Which Everyone Will Need Sooner or Later.

Almost everybody's digestion is disordered more or less, and the commonest thing they do for it is to take some one of the many so-called plood purifiers, which, in many cases are-merely strong cathartics. Such things are not needed. If the organs are in a clogged condition, they need only a little help and they will right themselves. Cathartics irritate the sensitive linings of the stomach and bowels and often do more harm than good.

Purging is not what is needed.
The thing to do is to put the food in condition to be readily digested and assimilated. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets do this perfectly. They partly digest what is eaten and give the stomach just the help it needs.
They stimulate the secretion and ex-They stimulate the secretion and ex-cretion of the digestive fluids and relieve the congested condition of the glands and membranes. They pu the whole digestive system in condi-tion to do its work. When that is done you need take no more tablets, unless you eat what does not agree with you. Then take one or two tablets—give them needed help, and you will have no trouble.

It's a common-sense medicine and will cure every time. Not only cure the disease but cure the cause. Goes about it in a perfectly sensible and cientific way.

We have testimonials enough to fill a book, but we don't publish many of them. However—Mrs. E. M. Faith, of Byrd's Creek, Wis.,

says:
"I have taken all the Tablets I got of you and they have done their work well in my case, for I feel like a different person altogether. I don't doubt if I had not got them I should have been at rest by this time."

H. E. Willard, Onslow, Ia., says:

"Mr. White, of Canton, was telling me of your Dyspepsia Tablets curing me of your Dyspepsia Tablets curing him of Dyspepsia, from which he suffered for eight years. As I am a sufferer myself I wish you to send me a package by return mail."

Phil. Brooks, Detroit, Mich., says: "Your Dyspepsia cure has worked wonders in my case. I suffered for years from dyspepsia, but am now entirely cured and enjoy life as I never have before. I gladly recommend them."

It will cost 50c to find out just how much Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will help you. Try them—that's the best way to decide.

The Washington Star, independent says on the subject:

"There seems good reason to fear that Gov. Folk is mixing his reform with politics. It is not a welcome sign for he is a man of ability and Magistrate of the First District has made a fine impression on the country.

The two men indeed are described as much alike in temperament and meth ods. CHAPTER VII. R. BREWSTER'S butler was surprised and annoyed. For the first time in his official career he had unbent so far as to manifest a personal interest in the welfare of his master. He was on the verge of assuming a responsibility which makes any servant intol-erable. But after his interview he resolved that he would never again overstep his position. He made sure that it should be the last offense. The day following the dinner Rawles appeared before young Mr. Brewster and indi-cated by his manner that the call was an important one. Brewster was seated at his writing table, deep in thought. The exclamation that followed Rawles' cough of announcement was so sharp and so unmistakably fierce that all other evidence paled into insignificance. The butler's. interruption came at a moment when Monty's mental arithmetic was pulling itself out of a very bad rut; and the cough drove it back

"What is it?" he demanded irrita-bly. Rawles had upset his calculations to the extent of seven or eight hundred

"Then why bother me about it?" "I thought it would be well for you to know, sir. The servants was going to ask for 'igher wiges today, sir." "You say they were going to : k? Aren't they?" And Monty's eyes lighted up at the thought of new possibili-

"I convinced them, sir, as how they were getting good pay as it is, sir, and that they ought to be satisfied. They'd be a long time finding a better place and as good wiges. They 'aven't been with you a week, and here they are striking for more pay. Really, sir, these American servants"—

"Rawles, that'll do!" exploded Mon-The butler's chin went up, and his cheeks grew redder than ever. "I beg pardon, sir," he gasped, with a respectful but injured air.

"Rawles, you will kindly not interfere in such matters again. It is not only the privilege but the duty of every American to strike for higher pay whenever he feels like it, and I want it distinctly understood that I am heartily in favor of their attitude. You will kindly go back and tell them that after a reasonable length of service their wiges-I mean wages-shall be increased. And don't meddle again

Late that afternoon Brewster dropned in at Mrs. DeMille's to talk over plans for the next dinner. He realized that in no other way could he squander his money with a better chance of getting its worth than by throwing himself boldly into society. It went easily, and there could be only one asset arising from it in the end-his own sense of disgust. So glad to see you, Monty," greeted Mrs. Dan glowingly, coming in with a rush. "Come upstairs and I'll give you some tea and a cigarette. I'm not at home to anybody.'

"That's very good of you, Mrs. Dan," said he as they mounted the stairs. "I don't know what I'd do without your help." He was thinking how pretty she was.

"You'd be richer, at any rate," turning to smile upon him from the upper landing. "I was in tears half the night, Monty, over that glass screen," she said after finding a comfortable place among the cushions of a divan. Brewster dropped into a roomy, lazy chair in front of her as he responded

"It amounted to nothing. Of course it was very annoying that it should

Former City Clerk W. H. Patterson recently collected from the city records data showing that the city owed the board of education $15,000 or $18,000 on back taxes and fines, according to the board's construction of the law.

4th. We are unalterably opposed to the proposed constitutional amend ment that provides for the return to the viva voce manner of voting, believing it to be a backward step and not in the interest of the people.

5th. We condemn the extravagant expenditures in the administration of our city government, brought about by the dilatory practice of postponement, and the employment of many useless party workers, and promise that all business of the city will be conducted with the strictest economy and that all useless officials will be dispensed with.

6th. Having before us constantly the evidences of advancement in both the commercial and civic world we recognize the necessity for the utmost care in the consideration of public measures, giving at all times an attentive hearing to the suggestions of progression.

The tendency of the times toward corporate investment of capital, and the extent of grants asked for by such institutions, would naturally suggest to our legislative bodies care as to the extent and effect of such grants and the enactment of such laws as will protect the inter- Barkley. ests of individual investors and the people at large, and also encourage and protect legitimate enterprises. We therefore are in favor of any practical plan whereby public utilities may be made cheaper, render better service.

COLE'S ORIGINAL HOT BLAST=THE CLEAN STOVE

DUST PROOF

Cole's Original Hot Blast is the cleanest stove ever placed on the market. Our method of removing ashes shown by cut No. 1, is perfectly clean and overcomes the many objections to the ash pan used in other stoves. The elbow draft casting with its upward slant allows the empty coalhod to be set under the draft so that no ashes or coals can be spilled on the floor. Our patented dustless ash cover shown by illustration is furnished free with Nos. 122, 152, 182 and 196 stoves. It keeps down every particle of dust in removing ashes, a feature that will be appreciated by every tidy housekeeper.

The ash pans used in other stoves are too small to hold a full 24 hours' accumulation of ashes. They are usually over-filled when removed, and the ashes

in the bottom of the stove are dragged out on to the carpet, as shown by cut No. 2. You are all familiar with the ash pan method, and have, no doubt, gone through the process many times of spreading a newspaper or cloth under your stove every time the over-filled pan is removed.

The ash pan is not only dirty, but is a great evil in stove construction. at adds a door and joints which can be made only temporarily air-tight by the use of stove putty. These joints open after a few weeks' use, rendering ash pan stoves worthless as fire keepers. It makes them fuel-eaters rather than fuel-savers. The ash pan and the shield for guiding ashes into the ran, also prevent base heat.

Our method is the only clean way. The whisk broom, turkey wing and dust cloth are dispensed with. There are no joints to leak air, base heat is not retarded and Cole's Hot Blast is the cleanest stove, the best floor heater and the only stove in the world which can be guaranteed to remain always air-tight. SMOKE PROOF

The feed door on this stove is guaranteed smoke proof and does away with the escape of smoke, soot and gas into the house. Side feed doors used on other stoves discharge a cloud of gas and soot-ladened smoke into the house and scatter soot and ashes over the carpet when opened.
